Matthew D. Thompson Promoted to Chief Financial Officer

HealthSmart's Ongoing Success in the Self-funded Insurance Market is Strengthened by Talented Leadership

(Dallas, Texas) August 4, 2015 — HealthSmart Holdings, Inc. announced today that Matthew D. Thompson has been named Chief Financial Officer. Mr. Thompson joined HealthSmart in January 2015 as part of the Company's strategy to expand senior management's capabilities in finance, accounting and acquisitions.

Previously, Mr. Thompson served as HealthSmart's Senior Vice President of Finance, where he was responsible for financial planning and analysis, treasury functions and various other finance initiatives, including acquisition valuations, due diligence and integrations.

Prior to joining HealthSmart, Mr. Thompson spent over six years with American CareSource Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ: ANCI), an operator of urgent care centers and a national network of ancillary healthcare providers. From 2010 to 2014, he served as Chief Financial Officer of American CareSource and was responsible for all finance and accounting functions, investor relations and was instrumental in the Company's acquisition and integration of ten urgent care centers during 2014.

Prior to American CareSource, Mr. Thompson spent almost ten years with Tyler Technologies, Inc. (NYSE: TYL), a leading provider of integrated, end-to-end information management solutions and services to local governments. While there, he served in various financial management positions, including Division Controller and Assistant Corporate Controller. Mr. Thompson started his career at Ernst & Young LLP, where he was on the audit staff and concentrated on small entrepreneurially-focused organizations.

Mr. Thompson received his Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting from Baylor University and is also a Certified Public Accountant.

"Matthew joins HealthSmart at an exciting time. As we continue to expand our product and service offerings, his background and industry experience will guide the development of our team to reach its full potential. He is a strong addition to our executive team," said Tom Kelly, HealthSmart's Chief Executive Officer.
